INFLUENCED FACTORS ON THE GIFTED'S ATTITUDE LITERATURE REVIEW

Nasseroddin Kazemi Haghighi

This is a review of the effects of evolution, culture and sex difference on the gifted's attitude. The evolution (from the viewpoint of cognitive, moral and affective) influences the gifted's attitude. The gifted's family is instrumental in forming his/her culture. The sexuality can influence the gifted's values, interests, self-concept, educational attitudes and career interests. It is concluded that the gifted's attitude (from the viewpoint of familial, educational, vocational-occupational, and social problems) comprises extensive results. It is proposed suggestions and recommendations for educational programs, family, teachers, consultants, and society. (Persian) pp. ۳۷۱-۳۹۴.
